Generation William Knight

Living with death had never been his thing, but it was hers.

Hendrix Harrison is an old-school journalist for a popular conspiracy rag and must get into the digital world or face extinction. Researching a ridiculous apparition in rural Northumberland he encounters an ambitious young scientist

Sarah Wallace studies insects on cadavers for a prestigious institution with connections to a powerful pharmaceutical company. She hopes to find a better way of pinpointing time of death in crime victims but is struggling with inconsistent and impossible results.

They are drawn into a terrifying alliance that fights to connect her failing research with the disappearance of a rotten corpse and the bedridden guest of a confused old widow.

Death is only the start.
