Karla came from a family that had a number of plans for her. She was nearly promised off to one of the Viking warriors in her village at a young age and it was understood that it was the life she was headed towards.

However, she never felt more comfortable than when she had a bow in her hand. In attempt to dissuade her from this life though her brothers take her out on a hunting trip to scare her. But when the prank goes wrong and she finds herself lost, who will find her first; her brothers or the mysterious figure that has been haunting those woods?
