Can't Buy Me Love (A Short Story) Liz Lipperman

When Maggie agreed to help out at a benefit for breast cancer research, she never dreamed that she'd be the hottest auction item, or that Casey—the same arrogant surgeon who has made her life and job a living hell since their recent one-night-stand—would make the winning bid. Locked into a dinner date with Casey, she vows to keep her cool. But when date night arrives, she finds that lingering desire makes it difficult to maintain her distance. With each of them damaged by loss and betrayal, what will it take for Maggie and Casey to finally let love in?
