Level: A1-B1

This is part 2 of Voyage en France.

This french read is perfect for beginners. It is tailored to the needs of English and German speakers and offers a pleasant way of expanding your vocabulary and building your confidence. The story is written in a simple and basic style, similar to common spoken language.

There is no need for a dictionary: key words are listed under each paragraph and translated out of the context. At the end of the book, all new words are summed up in a complete vocabulary section.

Simple and easy to read, Voyage en France is also amusing !

A good mix of grammar constructs is used, with basic and useful vocabulary. The story is written in tenses used in normal conversation : present tense, and just the right amount of future tense, passé composé and imparfait.

Level: A1 - B1

About the author :

Sylvie Lainé lives in Normandy where she teaches French to adults and teenagers. Her work with students of various nationalities and different ages allowed her to understand their difficulties and their challenges.

Having looked for enjoyable reads to occasionally escape grammar and exercise books, but finding nothing simple for beginners, she came up with the idea to write stories herself.
