Excerpt:

50. In an action to recover a hand bag alleged to have been forcibly converted by the defendant, a parking garage, the defendant filed answer to the plaintiff's complaint within the 20 days required by law. The defendant's answer included a counter claim against the plaintiff.

The plaintiff failed to file the required reply within the time for filing a reply. The plaintiff was represented by a generally competent attorney. In a malpractice action against the attorney, will the plaintiff prevail?

A) The plaintiff will prevail if the attorney was not properly licensed in the state where the forcible conversion allegedly took place. ---

B) The plaintiff will prevail if the attorney cured the defect in the reply within a reasonable time.---

C) The plaintiff will recover if the attorney intended to prevail on the colorable merits of the case but failed.-

D) The plaintiff will recover if he suffered harm and contributed less than 100% to his harm.---
