BOOK #1 PREVIEW

Rachel stood with her hands on her hips, looking out into the vast plains ahead. This journey was taking a lot longer than she had expected. She had known the approximate time in days, but hadn't counted on the hours to feel so long. Pa was watering the horses, and Ma was in the back of the wagon, shuffling around to fix supper. They would be in their new home soon. In the meantime, this would be her life for the next who knew how long.

BOOK #2 PREVIEW

Kirk slowed his horse and took a swig out of his canteen. It was a hot day, and he still had quite a long way to go. He was heading back to his home town and hoping to catch up with his family and friends after having a long adventure with just his horse and a couple of men.

BOOK #3 PREVIEW

Randall Hill had really bitten off more than he could chew in taking over the tiny restaurant down the street from his home. It had always been one of his favorite places and buying it out was a dream come true. However, his business knowledge wasn't nearly enough to keep it afloat and with all of his money invested into buying the place, he had to make it work on a tiny budget.

BOOK #4 PREVIEW

Lucas jumped off his porch and stared up at the sky. It was a dangerous looking day. The trees whipped around him, bending like licorice. He furrowed his eyebrows in concern. The tornado siren hadn't gone off yet, but he was sure that this was the exact weather for one to form in. He watched the dark clouds as they swirled above his head, and felt a twinge of nervousness in the pit of his stomach. This wasn't going to be the kind of day where anyone could relax.

BOOK #5 PREVIEW

Lara danced freely in her bedroom, imagining herself in the presence of grand royalty. She had always wanted to go to a ball and be courted by all the beautiful men in their beautiful suits. She may even one day meet a prince who would sweep her off of her feet and bring her to a life that she might never have dared to dream before. Her station in life wouldn't just be one of poverty, it would be one of meaning and incredible significance. People would view her with respect, and not just tolerance. She would really know what it was like to be somebody special.

BOOK #6 PREVIEW

Natalia gazed out the window, frustrated and angry. She had wanted so badly to go talk with the artists who were gathering outside in the town square, but mother and father had forbidden it. No good, respectable daughter of these good, respectable parents would insult the crown by toiling in such nonsense. She was to stay put and mind the children while mother and father paid their dues to high society, having tea and gossiping about the latest trends.
