When Atarah, the pampered daughter of a wealthy merchant, learns that her father intends to sacrifice her nephew in the fire to the god Ninlel, she flees with the baby and a trusted slave. Pursued by the evil Dagaar and at risk of falling prey to one of the mysterious Nephilim, she loses her way in an underground labyrinth, battles through an ash storm and barely escapes the leader of a community of escaped slaves. But she is totally unaware of the greatest danger of all -- Noah's Flood is coming soon and threatens to snuff out her life if she doesn't reach the safety of the ark in time. Unfortunately, she will do anything to avoid the ark. Will Atarah perish in the Flood or survive and marry Noah's son, Shem? This richly-researched novel remains true to the Genesis account.
