Sin Miedo: Lecciones de rebeldes (Spanish Edition) Jorge Ramos

«La gente me pregunta si soy periodista o activista. La verdad es que soy simplemente un periodista que hace preguntas, pero uno que, en efecto, toma una postura». —Jorge Ramos

Después de treinta fascinantes años de estar desenmascarando la verdad, Jorge Ramos, el periodista ganador de varios premios Emmy, habla por primera vez de las lecciones de vida que ha aprendido en su carrera. Son cautivadoras historias, muy personales y nunca antes compartidas. Ampliamente reconocido por su forma franca y sin limitaciones de entrevistar a líderes mundiales, titanes de los negocios, políticos de todo tipo y dictadores, Jorge descubre el denominador común que los une: todos son rebeldes.

Los rebeldes son diferentes. En un determinado momento decidieron poner a prueba el estatus quo. Algunas veces se rebelaron para lograr un cambio de régimen, en otras para evitar abusos o discriminaciones, pero en casi todos los casos lograron corregir una injusticia.

En Sin Miedo-Lecciones De Rebeldes, Ramos recupera sus principales entrevistas con rebeldes y poderosos como el presidente Barack Obama, los dos presidentes Bush, la ministra de la Corte Suprema de Justicia Sonia Sotomayor, Fidel Castro y Hugo Chávez, entre muchos otros. De manera honesta y a veces controversial, Jorge Ramos hace las preguntas que pocos se atreven. Al mismo tiempo, nos presenta una optimista visión de los Latinos, de la manera en que influirán en las próximas elecciones presidenciales y en el futuro de Estados Unidos.
