Who says that there is no love on the streets? Dionte is from the streets of NY. Born and raised. And even though he moves down south with his family, the streets are in him and they are always calling him...No matter what city he may live in. Maleeka is from North Carolina. Born and raised in the church, by a set of highly religious parents, and the furthest thing from street savvy as you can get. When Dionte meets Maleeka, she was 16, he was 18, and he would become her first boyfriend, her first love and her first lover. Maleeka falls madly in love with Dionte, but Dionte is madly in love with the streets. Follow these two on a journey of true love that spans over 2 decades and see where it leads them. Author Divine Ortiz tones it down a little to bring you the lighter side of the streets. The side where Urban Love can be found, if you know where to look.
