The Hot Zone: Area di contagio. La vera storia del virus ebola (Rizzoli best) (Italian Edition) Richard Preston

“Ebola era comparso in quelle stanze, aveva sventolato i suoi stendardi, si era nutrito e quindi si era nuovamente ritirato nella foresta. Tornerà.” Così Richard Preston concludeva, venti anni fa, agli inizi degli anni Novanta, la sua opera più importante, The Hot Zone – Area di contagio. Non un romanzo, ma una storia vera, come lo sono i personaggi descritti. Dal profondo delle foreste tropicali, dove fino al 1980 è vissuto e si è moltiplicato senza che la medicina ne rilevasse l’esistenza, un virus letale si manifesta all’improvviso: attacca le scimmie, ma anche l’uomo, e gli effetti sono rapidissimi e devastanti. La difficoltà di riconoscerne i sintomi, l’inefficacia delle terapie, la facilità con cui il virus si propaga e uccide: attraverso la ricostruzione storica dei primi casi e dei progressi della ricerca condotta nel tempo, Preston consegnò un’opera che oggi appare ancora più attuale. Un testo a metà fra indagine scientifica e narrazione, che grazie alla preparazione del suo autore ci racconta cos’è Ebola, un fenomeno che dopo una lunga fase silente è tornato, più violento che mai. E per il quale non esiste ancora un vaccino, ma solo la consapevolezza di dover fare molto in fretta.
