This book was created for the purpose of sharing my deep emotional outlooks on life, love, and losses. Having been through some ups and downs in a short life span, I felt it a relief to empty my heart, mind, and spirit onto paper. A lot like my first book, I've written this one in a raw format so that it would express both my thought process of how I deal with life and my creativity as I learn to understand meaningful moments of both balance and imbalance. My poetry is simple at times and other times leaves one thinking. They range from contemplative to controversial giving everyone at least one to love. I hope that my poems can affect everyone from making a young one laugh or think to making a grown man cry. With an open mind and heart you can create a mirror behind the poem, and the more you read it the bigger the idea becomes your own.
