“I LOVE how innocent you are,” Priya said to me. “But being innocent never got a girl what she wanted...”

Katie Conway is about to lose everything. Just two semesters before she’s supposed to graduate from NYU, her parents tell her they can’t afford another dime for tuition. She’ll have to move back to her small hometown, leaving behind her friends, her chic apartment, and everything else she loved about New York.

But just before she leaves the city, Katie’s sophisticated best friend Priya pitches her an idea: There are men in New York who will pay Katie money—lots and lots of money, more than enough to pay NYU tuition—if she gives them what they want.

Inexperienced Katie is intrigued, but nervous... until Priya sets her up with the dreamy billionaire Nolan Robeson, who offers her everything she wants, and more. But as Katie soon learns, even a perfect man like Nolan comes with a price tag...
