Neuroventa (Spanish Edition) Alejandro Torrijos

La Neuroventa es el estudio de la respuesta cognitiva, neurobiológica y psicosocial de un cliente ante los intentos que hace un vendedor para persuadirle de que compre su producto o servicio, con el fin de detectar aquellas tácticas y estrategias que resultan más efectivas. La Neuroventa tiene sus raíces en la Sociología, la Psicología y las distintas neurociencias, por tanto, supone un salto cualitativo con respecto a las tradicionales técnicas de venta, que carecen de la confirmación científica de su eficacia. La validez de sus propuestas ha sido contrastada mediante experimentos controlados, es decir, realizados en condiciones de laboratorio, y en este libro se hace referencia a más de 800 artículos científicos publicados en las revistas más prestigiosas.
