You've seen them, known of them, or have experienced firsthand their incredible kindness. People whose timing seems faultless, whose words are always comforting, whose actions seem divine, and whose hearts are as big as heaven. People you see as earth angels.

The stories that fill this book are about those very people--individuals who leave angelic impressions on everyone they encounter. Whether they come to the rescue of a neighbor, lift a fallen life, or fill the hopeless with encouragement, these people serve as heaven's vessels of encouragement.

In story after captivating story, you will read of men and women who step out of ordinary lives to become extraordinary in their actions and their impact on others. You will be amazed at their capacity to bring the power of heaven to the people of earth. These are the stories of those who have earned the title of Earth Angels.
