Catholic priests don't generally have children, but Australian legend Father Chris Riley has brought up about 60,000 - and they're some of the toughest kids around.

He regularly encounters some of the most troubled children on Earth - kids who have given up or refuse to talk to others, who steal, take drugs, see themselves as irredeemable failures, hate everyone and everything, self-harm, have been abused or abuse other kids, prostitute themselves, live on the streets, or have rejected anyone who's ever tried to help them.
