This is the Way God Made Me: Essays on Growing Up LGBTQ in a World Full of Hate- Volume One

Trina Zielinski Anderson

This book is an eclectic collection of essays, thoughts, and poetry about growing up LGBTQ. It offers insights into the impact of hate. It also provides LGBTQ youth with advice on how to navigate through the world. With 14 contributors this engaging and honest book is a valuable tool for folks looking for insight and answers. This would be an excellent piece of literature to share with struggling LGBTQ children and teens. It is also a good book to share with people who have homophobic tendencies. A wonderful read! Please note, the author will be donating 50% of the proceeds from this book to The Trevor Project, an organization which provides suicide prevention services to LGBTQ citizens.
