Love In Ramadan Tohib Adejumo

Love in Ramadan captures the life of Malik, a Nigerian American Muslim, who after his first year at Cornell University, reflects at his life on campus; his academic, social, and spiritual challenges and breakthroughs which leads him to a decision that would leave his parents astounded. As if one twist in Malik's new rebellious lifestyle wasn't enough, his (love) interest for a young woman named Patricia has a few turns of its own opening up new avenues for an unexpected, yet, beautiful and spiritually, romantic connection. However, relationships don't outlast fate, and Malik will soon find out, it is better to have loved young, than to have never loved at all.
