Everyone loved Michael and Jennifer's parties. They were always fun, always memorable and always unpredictable. Their New Year's Eve blow out to end the twentieth century promised to eclipse all expectations

Jennifer has not one, but two men interested in more than just a dance, and neither of them is her husband. Michael investigates what kind of naughtiness harmless flirting can lead to. And their friends will learn more about each other than they bargained for.

Relationships will be tested. Secrets revealed. And fantasies fulfilled.

This book is full of adult situations and is intended for mature readers.
