El Eunuco de Tombuctú (Novela) (Spanish Edition) Antonio Llaguno
La epopeya de Yuder Pachá, el conquistador del Reino de los Negros

Tombuctú, la ciudad más hermosa y misteriosa del Sáhara, brillaba como el centro cultural y comercial del rico Reino de los Negros. El desierto la había protegido de invasiones, hasta que un genio militar, el almeriense Yuder Pachá, logró conquistarla para el sultán de Marrakech, en una proeza que aún se estudia en las academias militares. El Eunuco de Tombuctú es una soberbia novela histórica que relata esa epopeya sin precedentes enmarcada en la difícil convivencia de moriscos y cristianos viejos en el antiguo reino de Granada.

El rapto del niño cristiano por los piratas berberiscos para castrarlo y convertirlo en Yuder Pachá marca el inicio de una documentada y apasionante narración que nos muestra la vida en Marrakech, la corte de los sultanes, sus costumbres, las alianzas e intrigas políticas, la diplomacia; la vida licenciosa del harén y los escarceos amorosos.

La batalla de los Tres Reyes en Alcazarquivir decidió el futuro de Portugal, España y Marruecos, en la que la figura de Yuder Pachá tuvo un destacado protagonismo, que ha permitido que su memoria haya sobrevivido a los siglos para llegar hasta nosotros. Una novela imprescindible para los amantes de la historia de al-Ándalus y su honda influencia en suelo africano.
